

Our Privacy Notice

The Arts and Disability Forum's mission is to be a catalyst for empowering disabled people who are interested in the arts. The ADF promotes artistic excellence and equity of access to arts and culture. It is the only Northern Ireland organisation representing the interests of disabled artists. The ADF's vision is of a genuinely inclusive arts environment, where any disabled or deaf person can be involved as they wish.

What you are consenting to when you subscribe to our list?

- That you are happy to be added to our mailing list and to hear about what we do via email. We will send not more than one a week, usually.
- We promise to never spam your account with junk mail.
- We promise not share your personal information,
- We promise to comply with General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and your right to privacy is engrained in what we do.
- You can opt out of our mailing list and request that your information be erased from our system.

Google Analytics

When you visit www.universityofatypical.org we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

What you are consenting to when you subscribe to our list?

- That you are happy to be added to our mailing list and to hear about what we do via email. We will send not more than one a week, usually.
- We promise to never spam your account with junk mail.
- We promise not share your personal information,
- We promise to comply with General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and your right to privacy is engrained in what we do.
- You can opt out of our mailing list and request that your information be erased from our system.

We use a third-party provider, MailChimp, to deliver our newsletter. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter. For more information, please see MailChimp's privacy notice. You can unsubscribe to general mailings at any time of the day or night by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of our emails or by emailing our data protection officer. info@universityofatypical.org

Third Parties

We may share anonymised personal information gathered in our feedback forms with other organisations, particularly Arts Council of Northern Ireland and Belfast City Council. They use it to analyse our audience demographic, audience development and the impact of our programme/s. We do not trade email lists with other organisations and businesses.

Access to your personal information

You are entitled to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold at any time. Email your request to our data protection officer Deirdre McKenna at administration@universityofatypical.org

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We will review our privacy policy in accordance with changes in data legislation.

